Other Side Will Vote in Election Tuesday; Be Sure You Vote, Too

Your newspaper hired an attorney and your editor dug up supporting figures from the courthouse files to develop a fool-proof formula for getting rid of the obsolete and expensive office of County School Supervisor.

But all we can do is bring up the issue. And it will go for naught unless you vote in the annual school election Tuesday. Hope voting places are the city hall and fire station.

Looking at the ballot Tuesday you will find Herbert M. Stephens and Dr. Forney G. Holt as candidates for the County Board of Education. The only issue here is whether or not you want to abolish the office of County School Supervisor. Mr. Stephens, who resides in Blevins and is in business both there and in Hope, is committed to abolishing the Supervisor office. Dr. Holt, of Hope has made no public statement, and of course, doesn't need to.

Dr. Holt filed for this office as a last-minute replacement for Milton Peebles of Saratoga, the retiring member-at-large on the County Board of Education. Dr. Holt filed after the County Supervisor issue had been defined, and after Mr. Stephens had committed himself to abolishing the office.

Obviously Dr. Holt's replacement of Milton Peebles was a political move to strengthen the hand of County School Supervisor Elmer Brown, on the theory that a Hope man should get more votes in this populous district than a Saratoga man.

But a candidate's residence means nothing, unless you are stupid and easily fooled. There is only one issue in this race — whether you mean to retain the office of County School Supervisor, swallowing up half of the county's Common School Fund and the equivalent of three teachers' salaries; or vote to abolish the office.

The Star has presented a mass of figures on the cost of Supervisor Brown's office, but probably our most effective blow on the uselessness of the office was the publication of the fact that Mr. Brown was so little needed in his courthouse office that he picked up $1,350, over and above his Supervisor's salary, for teaching school half a day at Spring Hill all last year.

Why on earth did Dr. Holt, a solid professional man, choose to get mixed up in this mess? Well, your editor had a letter from up-country the other day reminding him that Dr. Holt and County School Supervisor Elmer Brown are both old Bingen boys. Elmer was in a jam, and I presume Dr. Holt's good nature was taken advantage of to bail out an old friend in trouble.

Looking further, however, you will note that what we have lined up against us is a clique of professional school administrators: Elmer Brown, County School Supervisor; Dr. Holt, former principal of Hope High School; and the six rural school superintendents of the county who signed a "manifesto" declaring the county desperately needs the office of School Supervisor — all this in the face of the fact that the school districts which the Supervisor is supposed to supervise have shrunk from 25 to 8.

Whose county is this, anyway? Does it belong to the people, the taxpayers, the rank and file of school teachers? Or does it belong to a handful of professional school managers?

Thanks to this newspaper you'll get a chance to answer that question on Tuesday.

But DO ANSWER THE QUESTION!

GET OUT AND VOTE!

Board Urges 5-Mill Tax Hike Adoption

The Hope School Board issued the following statement today: The School Election tomorrow, Dec. 5, will decide a very important issue for the school patrons and all other citizens of Hope School District 1-A.

Your School Board feels that an explanation of our stand on assessment is in order.

We have been concerned about the assessment problem for more than 15 years and encouraged the taxing units for the county to employ professional appraisers in 1957 instead of working it out at the local level.

The majority of taxing units did not support this plan. The Hope Board supported it.

In 1958 the Hope Board supported employing a trained appraiser to work with the Tax Assessor's office on a full time basis to review and re-evaluate assessments. The majority of the taxing units did not favor this plan. On two other occasions prior to 1957 the board supported a re-appraisal program.

Assessment Issue

We feel that the Hope School Board has always supported and will in the future face up to the assessment problem. Therefore, on the basis of the above facts we do not feel that the criticism of our local paper is justified in this respect. The Board is ready at all times to work with the city, county and all other taxing units of the county to improve the system of assessing property on a fair and equitable basis. We are not in disagreement with our editor on the assessing problem. In the meantime:

1. We have improvements that need to be made.
2. Teaching personnel must be protected.
3. Instructional supplies and equipment should be added. Libraries must be improved.

These problems can be helped if you support this proposed program. Should it be defeated, it will bring about a costly delay before any improvements can be made.

Our Editor was right in his statement that, "every public-spirited citizen who has studied the operating figures of the local schools, will agree they need more revenue." We are asking for a 5 mill increase (from 35 to 40 mills).

The Tax Cost

What will the 5 mill increase cost a taxpayer:

1. A poll tax holder with no property — no cost
2. $100 total assessment — cost .50 per year
3. $500 total assessment — cost $2.50 per year
4. $1,000 total assessment — cost $5.00 per year

Very few towns in Arkansas have two schools that are accredited by the North Central Association, the highest accreditation that can be attained. It will take more support to keep the accreditation of both schools from being endangered. Your vote for this program will help this problem and strengthen your school program. Your vote against will weaken your schools.

It Is Your Choice
The Board realizes that any tax increase is unpopular, but also feels that our school children are being penalized by the low expenditure per child necessitated by present available revenue.

We hope that you support us in this program and consider it an investment in the welfare of this community in behalf of 2630 school age children and the teaching personnel who are guiding them through their formative years.

Co-ops to Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Interior Secretary Stewart Udall will be the principal speaker tonight at the annual meeting of the directors of the Arkansas Electric Co-operatives. Registration for the meeting was held yesterday. Gov. Orval E. Faubus will also speak today.

Blue Scout Rocket Roars Into Space

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP) — A 40-foot Blue Scout solid-fuel rocket roared into the sky today with a 20-pound package of instruments to measure radiation in space.

The Air Force said all four stages appeared to have fired as planned.

It was aimed at a point over the South Pole some 27,000 miles away in space—a journey the Air Force said would take about six hours.

The saucer-shaped payload was expected to fall back into the atmosphere and burn up some 12 hours after launch.

Besides instruments designed to measure low-energy protons originating from the sun, the payload includes a new telemetry system which can broadcast signals on less power than it takes to operate a flashlight bulb.

U. S., Fulbright Belittle Charge by Thurmond

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Both Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., and the State Department were quick to counter charges by Sen. J. Strom Thurmond that the government plans to give our nuclear weapons to the U.N.

The State Department belittled Thurmond's contentions, made in a speech here over the weekend, saying it would stand by a speech made by President Kennedy to the U.S.

At the time, Kennedy said "the United States plans to achieve under the eye of an international disarmament organization a steady reduction in forces, both nuclear and conventional, until it has abolished all armies and weapons except those needed for internal order and a new United Nations peace force."

Speaking to the Arkansas Department of the American Legion here and later before a Memphis group, Thurmond said he had learned the State Department has a plan for turning over the U.S. nuclear arsenal to the U.N.

He did not elaborate or give a source for his information and gave a terse "no comment" when asked by newsmen to do so.

Thurmond said the government's stand that military men should stay out of politics is "just a smokescreen."

The Memphis rally was staged by "Survival, U. S. A." and the American Legion.

Thurmond repeated his charge that a drive to "degrade the military" has been under way since Moscow decided the anti-communist drive was becoming too strong.

The State Department's alleged plan "would be a terrible blunder and under no circumstances should the people of this country ever submit to it," Thurmond said.

Fulbright, with whom Thurmond has frequently clashed on the military's role in politics, said an interview at Hot Springs Sunday that "I have no knowledge of such a move" as Thurmond charged.

"As far as I know, there is no truth to his report," Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said.

Jet Crashes in Germany, Four Killed

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A four-jet Boeing 720B of the German Lufthansa airline crashed near the city of Mainz on a training flight today. An airline spokesman said all three men aboard were killed.

The spokesman said there were no passengers on the plane when it crashed while attempting an emergency landing near the village of Ebersheim, west of Mainz.

The three victims included two flight captains and a flight engineer, all Germans.

The crash occurred just after noon. The cause was not immediately determined.

The plane crashed into an open field, police said.

It was one of several Boeing 720s delivered to Lufthansa earlier this year. The German airline flies them on its routes to North and South America as well as to the Middle East.

11,887 Deer Killed This Year

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Game and Fish Commission reports a record 11,887 deer were killed in Arkansas during the six-day open season last month. This compares to 8,511 killed in November 1960, and 12,406 for the entire year. There are nine more days of hunting this season and officials estimate a total of 16,000 for the year.

Walker Will Battle Reds on His Own

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker says he'll go it alone in his fight against communism.

"I will not be affiliated with anyone in particular," he declared Sunday when asked whether he would carry out his programs through such organizations as the John Birch Society.

"I intend to be myself and stay unassociated with any organization or any individual except the necessary personal staff to carry on my correspondence and my assistance in my program and objective. I am not going to be a principal spokesman for anyone but Edwin A. Walker."

Walker quit the Army last month following removal from his command of the 24th Division in Germany last May. It came after an investigation of complaints about an information program he sponsored among his troops.

An Army investigation cleared Walker of accusations that his troop training course was patterned on literature of the John Birch Society. The report said, however, that Walker was a society member.

Walker, appearing on the ABC-TV program, "Issues and Answers," said he didn't intend to change his purposes much.

Court to Rule on Prayers in School

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to consider whether it is unconstitutional for prayers to be said in public schools.

A petition submitted by parents of nine children in four schools in New Hyde Park, N.Y., contends the offering of prayer in schools violates the Constitution's principle of separation of church and state.

The New York State Board of Regents, the governing body of the state's public school system, had recommended to all local school boards that this prayer be used daily in opening exercises: "Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and we beg Thy blessing upon us, our parents, our teachers, and our country."

The objecting parents said they were, variously, members of the Jewish faith, the Unitarian Church, the Society for Ethical Culture, and one parent is a non-believer.

They appealed to the high tribunal after New York courts ruled the prayer did not violate the Constitution.

Coppers Had to Win

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock Police beat North Little Rock Police 25-14 in the third annual Copper Bowl football game Sunday. The match drew a crowd of 9,500 at $1 each to raise money for Christmas presents for needy families.

Faubus to Speak

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus will be the main speaker Thursday at dedication ceremonies for the State Hospital's new maximum security building. Also scheduled to speak is Dr. William L. Jaquith, superintendent of the Whitefield State Hospital, Whitefield, Miss.

German Reds Strengthen Berlin Wall

By JOHN FIEHN

BERLIN (AP) — Working through the night under floodlights, 2,500 East German workers narrowed the seven crossing points between West and East Berlin today and strengthened the adjacent sections of the Berlin wall with more concrete.

The U.S. command rushed in a platoon of 30 battle-dressed infantrymen as a show of force at the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint in the American sector, the crossing designated by the Communists for Allied personnel and other foreigners.

With a bazooka and two machine guns set up behind sandbags, the American soldiers faced several hundred men of the East German people's army, also in battle dress with machine guns.

The British increased the patrol on their short stretch of border near the Brandenburg Gate, and French officers were reported observing the activity along the border of their sector.

The formidable new walls were about seven feet high and five feet thick. Tank barriers of steel hedgehogs were cemented into the ground.

Only small passages for traffic, about eight feet wide for vehicles and two to three feet for pedestrians, were left open.

The East Germans said they were strengthening the wall to protect East Berlin from any ill-advised Western action. The Interior Ministry added that it was East Germany's reply to U.S. troop movements on the 100-mile autobahn linking West Berlin with the free world.

Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, the U.S. commandant in West Berlin, rushed a written protest to his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev.

Watson called the new East German action an illegal violation of the four-power occupation agreements on Berlin and demanded Soviet assurances that there would be no interference with Allied and civilian traffic between the U.S. sector and East Berlin. Watson called the East German explanation "an obviously ridiculous justification."

Before the work started at 6 p.m., two U.S. Army buses took half a hundred uniformed Air Force reserve officers from Washington on a two-hour tour of East Berlin. Among them were Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and Howard Cannon, D-Nev., both on-star reserve generals.

A group of off-duty Soviet soldiers on the street spotted the buses, broke into smiles and exchanged waves.

One member of the group, Jack Miller, R-Iowa, was driven across into East Berlin separately in civilian clothes and was stopped by the East German people's police. Miller said he showed his Senate identification card and the checkpoint officer passed him through with a smile, thanks and a salute.

Church Group Plans Aid to the Needy

"A Beautiful Christmas" is the project of the Hope Jr. and Sr. MYF groups at the First Methodist Church as they endeavor to make Christmas more enjoyable for the youth at the Methodist Children's Home in Little Rock.

This year they are sponsoring a drive for clothing, toys, blankets, etc. to send to the home and must complete the campaign by Dec. 16.

If you have anything you wish to contribute, take it to the church office or contact Mr. or Mrs. Steve Bader, Mr. or Mrs. Chris Petre or any member of the MYF to have it picked up.

Sullivan Shows Goes On and On

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — TV shows come and, inevitably, go. But Ed Sullivan's Sunday night hour—almost as old as television but as new as the latest teen-age singing smash—goes on, impervious to time.

The format of the CBS perennial, of course, is vaudeville. Although nowadays Sullivan's producer is going in for backdrops and elaborate production numbers, the attraction is still the prospect of fresh talent and big names each week.

Sunday night's outing was typical: a young singing discovery, Mike Clifford, plus singer Connie Francis. Then Sid Caesar in a couple of comedy sketches—one in fractured German was pure Caesar at his best—and Joan Sutherland, the new metropolitan opera sensation. If none of these was your dish, Ed pulled out Maurice Chevalier to sing Merry Christmas. Something for everybody.

CBS' "Twentieth Century" this season has been preoccupied with war, past hot ones and the current cold one. Sunday night's half-hour was a reminiscence by a Japanese sent to Pearl Harbor 20 years ago as a spy.

The man, now a gas station owner, was filmed as he revisited his wartime haunt in Hawaii. The voice of the translator unemotionally read this story:

To a reader of Eric Ambler and John Buchan, he certainly made the glamorous business of espionage sound like dull drudgery—reading up on Navy craft and studying "Jane's Fighting Ships" for background, hanging around public beaches and working in a Navy officers club in the hope he might overhear some secrets. HOURS TO KILL

Chapter XIX

How badly you must want a man dead to try first with a gun, then lie in wait with a car to finish the job! And how ticklish for his killer when he survived the bullet and wove his way to sanctuary, where he might easily, probably would, name his assailant.

But Margaret hadn't let Julio Garcia in, had held the lock against him.

She didn't know that she had put her hands to her face until Kincaid's voice, sounding as though it came from some distance away, said gently, "What goes on here?"

He had secrets of his own where Mrs. Foale was concerned, and no intention of divulging them: remember that, Margaret took the drink he handed her, and even the jeanness of the glass was steady. "It's this house, I think," she managed a very minor smile. "It's not the most cheerful place in the world at best, and now with Hilary sick too..."

Kincaid nodded glancing around him and then back at her face. "Your sister and her husband still haven't called?"

Margaret shook her head. "It isn't my business, I suppose," said Kincaid, bending a look of severity on his own drink, "but feeling the way you look as though you feel, could not you get in touch with them and have them come back?"

How sharply inquiring his lifted glance was. Could this be pure solicitude? Margaret said, finding the source of her own haunting worry as exactly as if she had touched a bad bruise, "I can't. I haven't the faintest idea where they are."

He received that with a short incredulous silence. "You mean they just—drove away in the other direction?"

"That was the point," said Margaret, defensive in spite of herself. "They didn't want to be bound by a lot of schedules and reservations, and they did have one of those marked tour books with them, and it isn't the tourist season yet so they wouldn't have any trouble finding places to stay."

"I see," said Kincaid. He sounded curious. "And what were you going to do if you fell and broke your hip?"

"I was going to be careful not to, I suppose."

"Man proposes," Kincaid said sententiously, and got up and walked to the windows, where he stood contemplating the greening lawn. "They must have had some general idea of where they wanted to go, or did they?"

"Roughly toward the Coast, I think, Cornelia wanted some swimming."

"Well, that narrows it down," said Kincaid pleasantly. "It's only—what? A thousand, 1500 miles?" He turned to her smiling, aware of the precise second in which Margaret had begun to resent being catechized. "You're polite not to tell me to mind my own business. It's only that you look as though you couldn't take much more. Anything I can do for you before I go? Look at the furnace?"

Margaret gasped; in her single-minded fear, the night before, she hadn't even thought about the furnace. "Yes, if you wouldn't mind."

It did; she could hear the rush in the pipes moments later. And then silence. How fortuitous, but still how odd, that it should have didn't.

NBC's mail department reports the show drawing the largest quantity of mail—and all approving—is "Sing Along With Mitch."

Bob Hope's 10th annual Christmas trip to entertain servicemen in remote outposts will take him and his troupe to Greenland, Labrador, Newfoundland and Baffin Island this year. The Arctic shows, as usual, will be filmed for later broadcast, although this season Hope's variety programs are few and far between.

SMU Looks for a New Coach

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist University starts looking for a new head football coach today, and backed by an administration statement that there are no plans to deemphasize the game, that fellow probably will be among the big names.

Bill Meek was let out as coach after five years when his team finished the season at Fort Worth Saturday, playing a 28-28 tie with Texas Christian.

Meek hadn't won enough games to get big enough crowds out to pay expenses and the athletic department was deeply in the red. Matty Bell, the athletic director, was instructed to find a new coach.

He said he was interested in newspaper reports that Doak Walker, who is in business at Denver, and Kyle Rote, who plays football with the professional New York Giants, might be interested in the job but he hadn't talked with them. Both played for SMU.

Speedy guard Wayne Davenport, who once led North Little Rock's championship high school team, scored 19 points in pacing Ouachita to an 83-57 victory over Millsaps College of Jackson, Miss., Saturday night in Arkadelphia.

Thirteen Tigers scored and Ouachita hit 42.2 per cent of its field goal attempts.

State Teachers, winner of its first conference game, took an 83-74 setback at the hands of strong Southeast Missouri State of Cape Girardeau, Mo., Saturday night in Cape.

Harding dropped 77-60 to Union, Tenn., Saturday night and Little Rock University, which isn't in the AIC yet, scored an impressive 66-63 victory over Southwestern of Memphis.

Field Trials Winner Picked

BOONEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —

Polaris Pete was selected winner of the Southwestern Championship Field Trials here Saturday. The handled by John Gales of Lees-year and received $3,179,000 for White and liver pointer owned by burg, Ga.

Dr. Herbert Vaughn and Byron Basswell of Shreveport, La., was 600 acres of strawberries last year and received $3,179,000 for their crop.

Goldfine Is Scheduled in Court Again

BOSTON (AP) — Industrialist Bernard Goldfine, 71, and his secretary, Mildred Paperman, 43, are scheduled to appear again in federal court today—this time to face charges of violation of probation. Goldfine—whose gift-giving to Sherman Adams led to Adams' resignation as an assistant to then President Dwight D. Eisenhower—is serving a year at the Federal

Progress Is Made on Laos Peace

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers and the Soviet Bloc concluded a far-reaching agreement today on how to maintain the peace and neutrality of Laos.

The six-point agreement was adopted at a closed session of the 14-nation Laos peace conference. It will become operative when the neutrality treaty now being drafted by the conference is completed.

Some important obstacles remain to be overcome, particularly the integration of the hostile Laotian military forces. But today's agreement marked the most substantial step forward yet taken by the conference and was hailed by Western and Communist delegates alike.

The agreement names Britain and the Soviet Union as joint, permanent guardians of Laotian neutrality.

The British and Soviet delegates are the co-chairmen of the 6 1/2-month-old conference. Under the new agreement, their governments are to consult each other and decide what action to take whenever the peace or neutrality of Laos is threatened.

The agreement also gives the Soviet bloc a veto over all major decisions of the three-nation control commission for Laos. The commission, made up of Canada, India and Poland, is to supervise observance of the cease-fire and Laotian neutrality.

Correctional Institution at Danbury, Conn., for evading $700,000 in income taxes.

Miss Paperman was placed on three years' probation in June after pleading guilty to an indictment charging her and Goldfine with evading taxes of $304,794 owed by his Stratmore Woolen Co.

Goldfine also is under five years' probation on a suspended 18 months sentence on a second indictment. One condition of probation was that he identify the recipients of about $600,000 unaccounted for in his business operations.

Mama Won't Let Go

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I am a married woman of 55 with a mother who treats me as if I were a 15-year-old nit-wit.

Talk about Matriarchs. She is the original. We all toe the mark—including my two daughters, one of whom is married and about to have a baby. Mama lives alone, is financially independent and could be happy if she didn't try to run other people's lives. As it is, we're always in a turmoil.

The latest ruckus was touched off by an innocent remark of mine about planning to visit my daughter and son-in-law because of the impending arrival of my first grandchild.

Mama blew up. What right had I to go when she needed me? Besides, if I knew the truth, neither my daughter nor son-in-law want me. This isn't so. They invited me to come.

"Furthermore," said Mama, "it's me, not you they would rather see than anybody else in this family." That really got me down. I have to read all my daughter's letters about to her, report each and every telephone conversation. If I don't, she writes my daughter letters that are sheer fabrication. My older daughter lives home with me and, like myself, has to account to Grandma for all she does. This daughter is 34!

I reared my family, made a home for all of us and am on my own. Do I have to take orders from Mama? It is all very humiliating. What can I do? I want to visit my daughter but hesitate now, because of the scenes it has and will precipitate.

—Nervous Wreck
Dear Nervous Wreck: Go. The more you give in to your mother, the more you'll have to. Call her bluff. Suppose she does pull the heavens down upon all of you.

She won't of course. Petty tyrants are afraid of their own shadows. Your mother is behaving like a spoiled child. Stop humoring her. We had just such a character in our family. And not until we asserted ourselves did we find peace of mind.

Dear Helen: My husband and I are buying a new home. We want to give a house-warming treat to the family, as well as a few close friends. My husband's sister and her husband don't speak to the brother and his wife. I should like to invite both couples, not wishing to hurt either. How in God's name, can I do so, without having to invite the police too? I'm going around in circles trying to puzzle this one out. —Distracted

Dear Distracted: Divide your guests into two groups; invite one batch—including your husband's sister and brother-in-law, to come from five to seven. Have the second sitting, as it were, from 8 to 10 and ask the brother and his wife for that. No use courting disaster. Emotions, especially where the people no longer speak are likely to get the better of manners.

Dear Helen: My daughter is to be married next month. Her two-year-old daughter was born out of wedlock. Should the bride wear white satin and a veil, be married in church, with all the trimmings, or dress simply, have a home wedding and invite just the family? —Concerned Mother

Dear Concerned: Good taste dictates a home wedding with only the immediate family present. However, if your daughter is marrying the father of her child, a small church wedding would be equally appropriate. In either case forego the wedding gown and elaborate ceremony.

Packers Down Giants in Pro Title Contest

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers stole their showdown struggle with New York, clinching their second consecutive Western Conference crown in the National Football League and forcing the Giants and Philadelphia Eagles into a two-week test of strength for the Eastern title.

Led by Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung, the Packers edged the Giants 20-17 Sunday, wrapping up the Western title with a 10-2 record and leaving New York and the defending league champion Eagles in a tie for the top spot in the Eastern sector with two games remaining. Both New York and Philadelphia have 9-3 records.

The Packers won it as Taylor scored twice on runs of 14 and 3 yards—the last the clincher in the fourth quarter—and Hornung brought his league-leading point total to 143 with a pair of field goals and two conversions. Altogether, Taylor ran for 186 yards, a club record.

The key play was made by Packers' defensive back Jesse Whitton, who stole the ball from Alex Webster on the Giants' 30 in the final quarter. The Packers, trailing 17-13, took advantage of the grab. Taylor finally going in for the winning touchdown from the 3.

The Eagles brought their record to 9-3 by blitzing the Pittsburgh Steelers 35-24, and have the advantage of playing at home against the Giants next Sunday in a battle that could determine Green Bay's opponent in the Dec. 31 championship playoff.

Not to be counted out, however, are the Cleveland Browns, one game back of the leaders with an 8-4 record after beating Dallas 34-17. The Browns meet Chicago next, then close out at New York while the Eagles are at Detroit.

The Lions moved into second place in the West, beating the Bears 16-15 while the San Francisco 49ers were losing to Baltimore's Colts 20-17. St. Louis extended Washington's winless streak to 22 games with a 33-24 win and Minnesota whipped Los Angeles 42-21.

Tom Brown sped 66 yards with a punt return in the third quarter to clinch it for the Eagles, then wound up the scoring with a 42-yard TD run in the final quarter. Sonny Jurgensen passed for two Philadelphia scores while Bobby Layne pitched three TD aerials for the Steelers (5-7), who fell behind at the outset when two interceptions of Rudy Bukich passes were turned into Philadelphia touchdowns.

The Browns beat the Cowboys (4-7-1) early, scoring three times in the opening period on Bernie Parrish's 34-yard run with a fumble, a 30-yard dash by Vince Costello with an interception and Jimmy Brown's yard plunge after another Parrish steal. Cleveland's Lou Groza kicked a field goal and five conversions for a career total of 824 points, one short of the NFL record held by Green Bay's Don Hutson.

Jim Martin of the Lions (7-4-1) had to kick an extra point from the 24-yard line following a penalty for the winning margin against the Bears (6-6) after the tying TD on a five-yard flip from Earl Morrall to Terry Barr with 22 seconds left. Roger LeClerc booted five field goals for Chicago, tying the league record.

The Colts (7-5) beat the 49ers (6-5-1) when Jimmy Orr grabbed a 41-yard payoff pitch from Johnny Unitas with 1:11 remaining after Steve Myhra had brought them within range with his second field goal. Sam Etcheberry passed for a pair of scores as the Cards (5-7) came from behind to whip the hapless Redskins (0-11-1).

Rookie quarterback Fran Tarkenton passed for four TDs in the Vikings (3-9) triumph over the

Duck Titles Go to Youngsters

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — The accent was on youth Saturday night in the 26th World Championship Duck Calling Contest.

Pete Claggett, 17, a Kansas City Mo., high school junior, won the national title. And Billie Domingue, 16, a high school junior from Port Arthur, Tex., won the women's title.

Terry Freeman, 17 of Stuttgart won the junior title. Claggett beat 11 other state and regional champions, including defending champion Ed Landreth of Joplin, Mo.

Charles Stepan of Port Arthur, Tex., was runnerup for the second straight year. Sonny Jordan Jr. of Greenville, Miss. and Willis Eddins of Des Arc, Ark., tied for third. Eddins was crowned Arkansas champion in the state contest which preceded the world event. A panel of judges selected the winners after the quacking.

Crimson Tide Blasts Way to Sugar Bowl

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama's Crimson Tide, unbeaten and untied in 10 regular season games, heads a list of 18 major college football teams that will participate in those always interesting postseason football games, beginning with Saturday's infant Gotham Bowl in New York. Alabama, which buried Auburn 34-0 Saturday to wrap up its first perfect season in 16 years, will meet Southwest Conference champion Arkansas (8-12) in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day.

The Tide, a bright and shiny product after four years of refurbishing by Coach Bear Bryant, was one of four schools to nail down bowl spots Saturday. Minnesota's Gophers (7-2) got the much-wanted Rose Bowl spot opposite Big Five champion UCLA (7-3).

Mississippi, after its 37-7 victory over Mississippi State announced it would meet Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Both finished 9-1. Rice (7-3) won its crucial game against Gotham Bowl-bound Baylor, 26-14, and became Kansas' (6-3-1) opponent in the Dec. 16 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Tex.

The only unfinished business is the naming of the year's No. 1 college team. Alabama is expected to get that honor hands-down in this week's final Associated Press poll.

The Gotham Bowl, which never got off the ground in 1960 and was a question mark until last Thursday, will pit unbeaten, but once-tied Utah State's Skyline Conference (9-0-1) co-champions against Baylor (5-5) Saturday at New York's Polo Grounds.

The following week, Miami (7-3), which ended its season with a 15-6 victory over Florida Saturday, journeys north to Philadelphia Stadium to meet Syracuse (7-3) in the third annual Liberty Bowl.

Penn State (7-3) plays Georgia Tech (7-3) in the Gator Bowl on Dec. 30. Tech also wound up the regular season on a happy note, beating Georgia 22-7 Saturday.

Villanova (9-2) meets Wichita (7-3) in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., also on Dec. 30.

Colorado (9-1) meets Louisiana State, co-southeastern conference champion with Alabama in the Orange Bowl. LSU finished with a 9-1 mark. Colorado beat Air Force 29-12 in its final game Saturday.

Broyles Praises Crimson Tide

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles thinks Alabama has a great football team, but he thinks the Razorbacks are as strong as the Crimson Tide at several positions—notably halfback.

The Porker halfbacks, Lance Alworth and Paul Dudley, are a rare pair for speed, agility and dependability. But, over all Broyles said after watching Alabama beat Auburn 34-0 Saturday, the Tide has more depth than Arkansas.

He called Alabama "as fine a football team as we have seen." "I am looking forward to a great game at New Orleans," he said. "Our boys can be proud of one thing. They will have played three of the top ten in football." The other two were Mississippi and Texas.

SWC Has 4 Teams for 2nd Year in Bowls

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Southwest Conference has four bowl teams for the second straight year and it is everybody's fervent hope that it will do better this time.

It wouldn't have to be too much — a victory somewhere. Last year Rice was beaten in the Sugar Bowl, Baylor in the Gator Bowl, Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl and Texas played a tie with Alabama in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anyway Baylor will meet Utah State in the Gotham Bowl at New York next Saturday. Rice will battle Kansas in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Dec. 16 and Texas will play Mississippi in the Cotton Bowl and Arkansas clashes with Alabama in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1.

It looks like a tough proposition and only the fact that the boys will be carrying about a half million dollars to the bank causes them to look at things philosophically.

Perhaps the Southwest Conference teams are welcomed to the bowl games because the other teams over the country figure they can beat them. At least that has been the record for the past several years.

The conference has won six games in the bowls—in six years it has lost eight, won two and tied two.

But there is compensation in deed. For instance this year the conference will see its four bowl teams take home the following: Texas $93,100; Arkansas, Baylor and Rice $91,500 apiece.

The other four members of the conference — Texas Christian, Southern Methodist, Texas Tech and Texas A & M all will get $1,500 for just staying home and watching the bowl games on television.

A Southwest Conference team can keep $60,000 of its take from a bowl game. In the case of the Cotton Bowl it also gets mileage of $7.50 one way. The rest of the booty goes into a kitty for a division eight ways, this year it will come to about $31,500 each.

Not a bad racket for the privilege of letting somebody give you a football licking.

The state's pecan crop netted growers nearly two and a half million dollars in 1960.

Bobcats Lick Prescott But Hope Girls Lose

By VINCE FOSTER

Hope split two games with Prescott in Jones Field House Saturday night as the Cat whipped the Lady Wolves 41-37 and the Lady Cats were dropped 41-36 in a thriller.

The Bobcats eased out an early 11-8 lead in the first quarter, and behind the rebounding of Roberts, Hatfield and Heaton, held on and were out front 19-15 at the half. Five field goals and a free throw provided the Cats with 11 more tallies in the third and they stayed out front until the buzzer, despite a hard press by Prescott. Jeffery Powell led the Cats with 11 points, closely followed by Russen with 10 and Porterfield with 9. Danny Hatfield sank five and Roberts, Hooten and McElroy dropped in two each. This was the second win of the season for the Cats and they will try to keep this streak alive Friday, when they play host to Gurdon.

A 19 point scoring spree in the second quarter enabled the Prescott girls to hold on and defeat the Hope Ladies 41-36. Hope trailed on 7-6 after the first quarter, but the scoreboard read 25-10 at the half. Calhoun and Lloyd helped close the gap to 32-23 going into the final period, in which Janice Lloyd caught fire and tossed in 10 points. But this wasn't enough and the Lady Cats suffered their second loss of the season.

Those charity tosses seem to be the back breakers for the girls, as Prescott sank 13 out of 19 shots to Hope's 6 out of 19. Hope stood out front 15-14 in the field goal department, Janice Lloyd led the Ladies with 17, and Melba Calhoun had 11. Lera Calcutt sank 4, while Jennifer Smith and Peggy Duke had two each. Barbara Wester, Cozette Odom and Judy Robinson were defensive players.

Boyer suffered a broken nose and a cut face in practice last week and Wofford, who tied for scoring honors against Kansas with 15, suffered a charley horse. Both are junior forwards.

Rose, the dean of Southwest Conference basketball coaches, has a career coaching record of 336-183 and he has won six Southwest Conference championships at Arkansas. The Porkers' last title was in 1958.

The effigy of Rose wore a sign: Glen Rose — Ace Recruiter." University security police cut it down. Missouri leads in the off-and-on series between the schools, 6 games to 5.

The number of milk cows declined during 1960 in Arkansas, but production of milk per cow during the year increased.

DALLAS (AP) — Arkansas' fleet halfback Lance Alworth was drafted by Oakland of the American Football League Saturday in the second round. He can still be drafted by a National Football League team. Alworth was the only Razorback mentioned in the nine rounds of the AFL draft.

Yarger Lost in Big 9 Conference

Texarkana, Washington, Forrest City, Arkadelphia and Crossett each went undefeated in conference action as each won its class division in state Negro football competition.

Yarger High of Hope was at the bottom of the Big Nine standings with no wins and six losses. The local team failed to place a man on the all-state selection.

Blanda Leads Houston Over San Diego Team

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The mighty George Blanda is getting most of the credit for Houston's American Football League surge that has shot it to the top of the Eastern Division and made it a favorite for the championship.

But what about the coach? Blanda, who put on a great show Sunday in leading the Oilers to a 33-13 victory over hitherto undefeated San Diego, certainly has earned all his tributes. But this coach, Wally Lemm, must be the most successful one in the world today.

Houston hasn't lost a game since he took over Oct. 16 and now the record is seven straight. Gallivanting Blanda passed for four touchdowns, kicked two field goals and converted three ties—so that accounts for all the Houston points.

Houston beat San Diego at its own game. The Chargers, who had won 11 straight and clinched the championship of the Western Division, were noted for their pass defense, having pilfered 43 for a record. Houston not only passed San Diego gooley but intercepted three San Diego throws.

Squaws Seem to Be About Best

This past weekend the powerful Ten Pen Squaws of Hope again defeated an out of town team made up of selected players from five teams at the Holiday Bowl in Texarkana.

Bowling on the Squaws team are Judy Koslosky of Prescott, Muriel O'Steen, Velaora Bright, 462, 166 single. The Holiday team bowled a 2209 as compared to the Squaws' 2227. The Squaws won all four points.

Division race and has only to beat New York and Oakland, a couple of clubs the Oilers already have clouted, to push into the championship playoff.

Boston hung in the race with a 20-21 victory over Denver and New York kept its hope slimly alive when it socked Dallas (1-7). New York is a game and a half off the Houston pace.

Buffalo edged Oakland 26-21 in the other AFL game Sunday but it meant nothing. Both are out of the race for anything except the cellar.

Babe Parilli paid for his salary as Boston beat Denver. He threw 51 yards for one touchdown and ran for another to pull the Patriots to victory.

Al Dorow did about the same thing for New York in its victory over Dallas. Art Baker ran for two touchdowns in Buffalo's decision over Oakland.
